

Abigail Edwards is a Minister at Revival Fire Apostolic Centre. She functions at the North Branch where she heads the Administration. Abigail is passionate about equipping believers to hear God and express God's heart through the gifts of the Holy Spirit. As part of Revival Fire's Prophetic Team she has ministered prophetically at churches and conferences around the country and facilitated prophetic training at the North Branch. She serves on Revival Fire's Intercessory team and leads intercessory pray at the North Branch. Abigail also functions in the market place where she works with government ministers and captains of industry to develop and implement national plans, policies and strategies to bring economic transformation to the nation. She has a Master of Business Administration (MBA) from the Henley Business School, University of Reading in London and a Bachelor Degree in Management Studies from the University of the West Indies, Trinidad. She desires to see the body of Christ function in their true identity in their sphere of influence.
